Fitness

Build movement into the workday. From 10,000-step challenges to burpees, planks, and stair climbs — these challenges meet participants wherever they are and gently raise the floor.

17 CHALLENGES • PAGES 4-9

● 30 DAYS

Plank You Very Much

Firm your abs, core, shoulders, arms, and glutes with this simple, effective exercise. Time to crank your core and become a plank ninja.

LENGTH	TRACKING
30 days	Plank time

● 6 / 8 / 12 WEEKS

Step It Up

Taking steps is the first step to stepping up your fitness in the right direction. Log 10,000 steps in a day.

LENGTH	TRACKING
6, 8, or 12 weeks	Number of steps

● 4 WEEKS

Lap In — Lap Out

Before you come in to work in the morning, lap in. Before you leave in the evening, lap out. Get a walking circuit and lap in, lap out, each day.

LENGTH	TRACKING
4 weeks	Number of laps each day

● 30 DAYS

30 Days of Fitness

Writing it down makes it real and easier to follow through. Resolve to do at least one thing every day to improve your fitness.

LENGTH	TRACKING
30 days	Length of fitness routine

● 5 WEEKS

Trip Around the World

Walk the globe and learn about your world as you move through it. As participants progress, we provide health tips and recipes from each region.

LENGTH	TRACKING
5 weeks	Steps

● 30 DAYS

15-15

Fitness is not as hard or as time-consuming as we've been told. Take 15 minutes during your day, and log what you added.

LENGTH	TRACKING
30 days	Length of daily activity

● 30 DAYS

Stare Down the Stairs

A core wellness principle: never stand as long as you're still able to walk. Take a flight of stairs because you can.

LENGTH

30 days

TRACKING

Flights of stairs taken

● 90 DAYS

What Benefits You Benefits Me

Get your friends together and show up for a benefit walk or run. You'll feel better inside and out — and help others in the process.

LENGTH

90 days

TRACKING

Running time

● 12 WEEKS

March to May

Walking is good for weight management, chronic disease risk reduction, and stress control. Let's march to May.

LENGTH

12 weeks

TRACKING

Number of steps

● 5 WEEKS

Zombie Challenge

The zombies are coming. Keep moving and stay ahead of them — they get faster each week. Don't get caught.

LENGTH

5 weeks

TRACKING

Steps

● 7 WEEKS

Spring Into Activity

Walking is good for weight management, chronic disease risk reduction, and stress control.

LENGTH

7 weeks

TRACKING

Steps

● 1 YEAR

My Activity Tracker

Track your monthly steps through a wearable device, pedometer, or by choosing an activity from a list of 200.

LENGTH

1 year

TRACKING

Number of steps

● 8 WEEKS

Couch to 5K

Get off the couch and start moving. By the end of this challenge, participants are ready to complete a 5K.

LENGTH

8 weeks

TRACKING

Distance and time

● 7 WEEKS

Stay Fit at Home

Weekly strategies to make regular short bursts of movement part of the daily routine — at home or in the office.

LENGTH

7 weeks

TRACKING

Amount of time

● 3 WEEKS

Excuse Me, I Burpee'd

The burpee fuses aerobic and strength training into one full-body exercise. No equipment needed — it goes anywhere.

LENGTH

3 weeks

TRACKING

Number of burpees

● 28 DAYS

Stretch It Out

Stretching is like giving yourself an instant massage. Great for injury prevention, and it can be done in many forms, almost anywhere.

LENGTH	TRACKING
28 days	Time

● 4 WEEKS

Go for the Gold

Four fitness challenges in one. Each week brings a new focus: planks, squats, push-ups, and sit-ups. Meet or exceed the weekly goal to win gold.

LENGTH	TRACKING
4 weeks	Weekly goal completion

CATEGORY 02 / 04

Nutrition

Better food, simpler choices. These challenges build awareness around what we eat — labels, hydration, color, sugar, caffeine — and turn small daily adjustments into lasting habits.

17 CHALLENGES • PAGES 11–16

● 1 WEEK

Veg Out

An easy way to better nutrition: practice eating more vegetables. Take one week and eat a vegetarian diet.

LENGTH

1 week

TRACKING

Number of vegetables

● 3 WEEKS

Hydration Challenge

Hydration is critical to so many of the body's functions. After just 3 weeks, participants notice a real difference.

LENGTH

3 weeks

TRACKING

Daily intake in ounces of approved drinks

● 2 WEEKS

Fruit for Dessert

Fruit is more delicious than you realize, especially as dessert. Health up your meal with a piece of fruit at the end.

LENGTH

2 weeks

TRACKING

Fruit for dessert (yes/no)

● 30 DAYS

Get Real

People put things in their mouths that just aren't food. Find the faux-food fakers in your products and get them out.

LENGTH

30 days

TRACKING

Faux-free day (yes/no)

● 1 WEEK

Make a Fake Food at Home

Everyone has a faux food they love. Own up to it — and we'll provide an at-home solution for making it yourself.

LENGTH

1 week

TRACKING

Made the recipe (yes/no)

● 30 DAYS

Cancer-Fighting Foods

The best cancer fighters on earth are also the cheapest. Get the list, make them, and share with others.

LENGTH

30 days

TRACKING

Ate a cancer-fighting food (yes/no)

● 30 DAYS

Take Your One a Day

The best supplement on earth is a piece of fruit. Add a piece of fruit during your day. Just one — start there.

LENGTH

30 days

TRACKING

Amount of fruit eaten

● 30 DAYS

Take Out the Trash

Antioxidants clean your system by removing the waste products of cellular metabolism. Add high-antioxidant foods to your diet.

LENGTH

30 days

TRACKING

Drop-down of foods to choose from

● 6 WEEKS

Color Your Plate

Add the rainbow of colors to your plate every day. The treasure: improved health and lower weight along the way.

LENGTH

6 weeks

TRACKING

Number of colorful foods eaten

● 30 DAYS

Kick the Can

Sodas are not real food. There are no soda bushes. Go one month soda-free.

LENGTH

30 days

TRACKING

Number of sodas (goal: decrease)

● 30 DAYS

Brown Bag Lunch

During this challenge, bring a packed lunch to work each day.

LENGTH

30 days

TRACKING

Bring your lunch (yes/no)

● 2 WEEKS

Caffeine Count

The FDA considers 400 mg of caffeine per day a safe amount for healthy adults. This challenge is about awareness — how much, and from where.

LENGTH

2 weeks

TRACKING

Milligrams of caffeine

● 4 WEEKS

Healthy Snacks and Sides

Choose healthier options for snacks and sides. Learn what ingredients to look for — and what to skip.

LENGTH

4 weeks

TRACKING

Number of healthy snacks/sides

● 1 WEEK

Lose the Sugar

We eat an average of 140 pounds of sugar per person, every year. Reduce consumption and pull your sweet tooth out.

LENGTH

1 week

TRACKING

Sweet-tooth rating

● 3 WEEKS

No Night-Time Munchies

Giving your body a period to rest and digest is a good thing. Fast from evening into morning — and feel the difference.

LENGTH

3 weeks

TRACKING

Did you snack

● 12 WEEKS

The One-Veg Boost

Small changes lead to big results. Add just one vegetable to at least one meal each day. Tiny shifts add up.

LENGTH

12 weeks

TRACKING

Yes/no for eating a vegetable that day

● 28 DAYS

Label Smart

Build confidence in reading ingredient labels so you can make informed, heart-healthy, energy-supporting food choices.

LENGTH

28 days

TRACKING

Number of food labels read

CATEGORY 03 / 04

Weight Loss

Sustainable change, not crash diets. Train your appetite, eat at meal times, and focus on portion size and presence — habits that hold long after the challenge ends.

7 CHALLENGES • PAGES 18-20

● 30 DAYS

No Weigh, No Way

If you're an over-analyzer, a great strategy is to let go. Go an entire month without weighing yourself.

LENGTH

30 days

TRACKING

How clothes feel (1–3 scale)

● 30 DAYS

Stop Overconsumption

Eat all you want — just want less. Train your appetite downward to cure overconsumption, calories, and weight in one go.

LENGTH

30 days

TRACKING

Number of portions consumed

● 1 WEEK

Sensual Eating Practice

The more you taste your food, the less you're hungry for it. Focus on flavor at a meal, and judge how it helps control cravings.

LENGTH

1 week

TRACKING

Drop-down of food tasting options

● 30 DAYS

Join the Small Pants Club

Remember those skinny jeans? Drop one size and have to buy smaller pants.

LENGTH

30 days

TRACKING

Drop-down of how pants feel

● 1 WEEK

Eat at Meal Times

Healthy people eat at meal times — not all the time. Train your body to ban mid-meal munchies and return to a 3-meal pattern.

LENGTH

1 week

TRACKING

Number of between-meal snacks

● 30 DAYS

Play Survivor

Don't worry about losing weight — just survive one month without adding pounds. Day 1 to 31 without gaining.

LENGTH

30 days

TRACKING

Weight

● 30 DAYS

Pull Your Sweet Tooth

Average sugar intake: 140 pounds per person, per year. Go sugar-free for one month and pull that sweet tooth out.

LENGTH

30 days

TRACKING

Rate your sweet tooth (0–10)

CATEGORY 04 / 04

Mindfulness

Mental wellbeing is part of physical wellbeing. Sleep, gratitude, laughter, breathwork, and digital boundaries — the quiet daily practices that lower stress and lift mood.

16 CHALLENGES • PAGES 22-27

● 1 WEEK

Gratitude Inventory

Good is out there — be present to it. Take a morning inventory of things you are grateful for. They can be big or small.

LENGTH

1 week

TRACKING

Drop-down of things you're grateful for

● 3 WEEKS

No Complaint Week

Complaint is like emotional smog. Clear the air and you see better, breathe easier, and just feel better.

LENGTH

3 weeks

TRACKING

Drop-down on complaining increase/decrease

● 1 WEEK

Laugh Out Loud

Laughter is an addictive drug with only good side effects. Laugh out loud every day for one week.

LENGTH

1 week
